From Tuesday November 24, to Saturday November 28, 1761.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 25th Day of November, 1761,

PRESENT,

The KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

HIS Majeſty having been pleaſed to deliver the Cuſtody of the Privy Seal to his Grace John Duke of Bedford, the Oath of Keeper of the Privy Seal was this Day adminiſtred to him, and his Grace took his Place at the Board accordingly.

The following Addreſs of the Nobility, High-Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Waterford, in the Kingdom of Ireland, tranſmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Halifax, Lord Lieutenant of the ſaid Kingdom, to the Earl of Egremont, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been preſented to His Majeſty, and was moſt graciouſly received.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Nobility, High-Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Waterford, in the Kingdom of Ireland.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's ever dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, High-Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Waterford, in the Kingdom of Ireland, humbly beg Leave to expreſs that Share we feel of the general Joy, on the happy Occaſion of your Majeſty's Nuptials.

Truly ſenſible of the great Bleſſings, which accrue to theſe Nations from the Wiſdom and Steadineſs of your Counſels, and your victorious Efforts againſt the unjuſt Attempts of your Enemies, we chearfully embrace this Opportunity of acknowledging, with the moſt unfeigned Gratitude, Loyalty, and Affection, your Majeſty's paternal Goodneſs and Care to ſecure the Continuance of theſe Bleſſings to us, by chuſing for your Royal Conſort, a Princeſs whoſe eminent Virtues have already enthroned her in the Hearts of your People.

By your Majeſty's wiſe Choice, you have declared your firm Zeal for the Proteſtant Religion, and your true Regard for the Britiſh Conſtitution.

Permit us then to join in the general Prayer of our Fellow-Subjects, that the Divine Providence may bleſs your Majeſty with a long and happy Reign; may your Deſcendants, in a numerous Line, inherit your Royal Virtues; and may ſocial Happineſs and conjugal Love alleviate your Mind under the Cares and Anxieties of Government.

May your Majeſty and your Royal Conſort, thus united, live long and proſperous together, exceeding in Happineſs (if poſſible) the moſt ſanguine Wiſhes of your grateful and affectionate Subjects.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Cockermouth has been preſented to the King by Sir John Mordaunt, Knight of the Bath, and Charles Jenkinſon, Eſq; Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

YOUR Majeſty's Marriage opens ſo glorious a Proſpect of Good to theſe Nations, that their Joy is become univerſal; and your Majeſty's moſt loyal and truly affectionate Subjects, the Bailiff and Burgeſſes of the ancient Borough of Cockermouth, beg your Majeſty's Acceptance of their beſt Wiſhes thereon. Your Majeſty and your Royal Anceſtors have ever ſhewn a true and tender Regard to our excellent Conſtitution, and the public Welfare; and we are well aſſured, that this early Union of your Majeſty, with a virtuous Proteſtant Princeſs, is the moſt likely Means of conveying the ſame Conſtitution and Welfare to our lateſt Deſcendants. We unfeignedly pray that your Majeſty may long reign the Father and Delight of your Country; happy in your Queen, happy in your Offspring, and happy in your Subjects; and that all your People, leading godly and virtuous Lives, after the Example of their Sovereign, may conſtantly bear towards your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, the pureſt Affection, and the moſt chearful Submiſſion.

The following Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Lincoln, has been preſented to His Majeſty, by the Right Honourable Lord Brownlow Bertie and Thomas Whichcot, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament; being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The Humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Lincoln.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Lincoln, beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence with our ſincere and dutiful Congratulations on your auſpicious Nuptials with a Princeſs, diſtinguiſhed by her many elegant and amiable Endowments, and equally accompliſhed to adorn the Throne, and to enliven Domeſtic Happineſs.

May the Almighty ſhed His ſelecteſt Bleſſings on this ſacred Union; may your Majeſties long remain the Patterns of Conjugal Felicity; and, when the Fulneſs of Time ſhall have gathered you to your Illuſtrious Anceſtors, may the Race of Britiſh Princes, your Deſcendants, ſway the Sceptres of theſe Kingdoms, and continue from Age to Age, the Guardians of Freedom and Religion.

Turin, Oct. 31. The King of Sardinia has appointed Count Laſcaris, who was lately his Miniſter at the Hague, to be Envoy Extraordinary at the Court of Naples, in the Room of Count Rubion, who is recalled.

Duſſeldorff, Nov. 13. The Diſlocation of Prince Soubiſe's Army being quite finiſhed, and the Troops in March on all Sides to their ſeveral Deſtinations, that Prince arrived here this Day at Noon, where the Head Quarters will remain this Winter; but it is thought he will ſet out for Verſailles as ſoon as he has made the neceſſary Diſpoſitions for the Safety of the ſeveral Garriſons, &c.

Liege, Nov. 17. Four Squadrons of the Gendarmerie marched into this City laſt Monday, in their Way to the Winter Quarters aſſigned them in this State between the Sambre and the Maeſe; their Horſes were ſmall, and very much fatigued; but the Men made a fine Appearance.

The Regiment of Flanders arrived the 13th at Aeh,

Ach, a little Village belonging to this State on the Side of Stockem; they were followed the 15th by St. Maurice; the 17th by Vogué Cavalry, and the 19th Talleyrand is expected. All these Troops come from Prince Soubise's Army, and march by Dieft to Ghent, from thence the Infantry will be conveyed in Boats to Oftend.

Magdebourg, Nov. 14. Colberg is revictualled, and the Bulk of the Ruffian Army, under the Generals Butturlin and Fermor, took the Route of Poland the 2d Inftant, leaving a Detachment under General Romanzow to continue the Blockade.

On the fame Day the Ruffian General Berg attacked General Platen between Stargard and Piritz, but was repulfed with the Lofs of 500 Men.

We have received the following Advices from Prince Henry's Head Quarters at Barnitz near Meiffen, dated November 9.

On the 1ft of this Mouth Marfhal Daun received a Reinforcement of feven Regiments of Infantry, and four Regiments of Cavalry, detached from Silefia by General Laudohn. The fame Day Colonel Kleift diflodged the Enemy from Gros-Schirna. On the 25th, in the Morning, all our advanced Pofts, from Sibeneichen, which covers Meiffen, to Rofwein upon the Mulda, were attacked at the fame Time. Thefe were chiefly advanced Pofts, and gave Way. The Enemy's Huffars carried off a Cannon from a Poft occupied by a Free Company of Major Quintus's Battalion. The Villages of Teutfch Bohra, Eule, and Elgerfdorff, which covered the Camp of Katzenhaufers, were maintained, and the Enemy's Light Troops, which were purfued, retreated with Lofs. The Views of the Enemy were to have feized the Eminencies of Noffen, and to have advanced a Body of twelve Battalions behind Rofwein. Our Pofts on the other Side of the Mulda, retired, being nothing more than Alarm Pofts. The Enemy occupied Rofwein, from whence General Seidlitz diflodged them on the 7th. As we have very refpectable Pofts on this Side of the Mulda, the Motions, which the Enemy has juft made, will not occafion any Alteration in our Pofition. We have taken two Officers and fixty Men in the Affair of the 5th, and our Lofs does not exceed that Number. The Army of the Empire continues to keep its Pofition behind the Saale and the Elfter.

Magdebourg, Nov. 17. The lateft Accounts from Silefia are of the 11th. His Pruffian Majefty was then at Strehlen, and General Laudohn continued to occupy his former Pofition near Freyburg, and in the Gorges of the Mountains.

Letters from Prince Henry's Army fay, that on Saturday laft, the 14th, the Auftrians had taken Poffeffion of Doblen upon the Freyberg Muldau; from which however, they were very foon diflodged by a Pruffian Detachment.

The News of feveral Ships, loaded with Provifions, having got into the Harbour of Colberg, is confirmed by Letters of the 14th from Stettin; as is alfo the March of the Great Ruffian Army towards the Viftula. General Romanzow ftill continues before Colberg; but as, on the 8th, fome Movements were obferved in his Camp, which feemed to indicate an intended Retreat, it is hoped, that the Blockade of that Place will very foon be raifed.

Hambourg, Nov. 17. The laft Letters from Saxony mention, that Marfhal Daun had made feveral Attempts to bring Prince Henry of Pruffia to a general Action; but that hitherto they had all proved ineffectual. His Royal Highnefs's Head Quarters were at Barnitz near Meiffen, General Seidlitz was at Noffen, and Colonel Kleitz at Dobeln, the 9th Inftant.

Hague, Nov. 20. By the laft Letters from Eimbeck, where Prince Ferdinand's Head Quarters were on the 14th, we are informed, that the French Army under Marfhal Broglio had retired behind Gottingen, and was preparing to go into Winter Quarters.

The Prince of Soubize has eftablifhed his Head Quarters at Duffeldorp, and was putting his Army too into Winter Quarters.

Accounts from Colberg continue to give Hopes that the Ruffians will be obliged to raife the Siege.

Prince Henry of Pruffia had hitherto defeated the Attempts of Marfhal Daun; and in Silefia nothing had happened of any Confequence.

Hague, Nov. 24. Prince Ferdinand's Head Quarters were on the 18th ftill at Eimbeck; Marfhal Broglio has withdrawn all his Troops behind Gottingen, and is occupied in fettling his Head Quarters, the Firft Line of which will entend from Mulhaufen to Fritzlar.

By Letters from Magdeburg of the 17th, the Armies of His Pruffian Majefty and General Laudohn continued in the fame Pofition as on the 11th.

Eimbeck, Nov. 14. Prince Ferdinand has had the Misfortune of a Fall off his Horfe, by which he has bruifed his Leg, and is at prefent confined by that Accident.

Marfhal Broglio arrived the 13th at Gottingen. The fame Evening the Hereditary Prince attacked, near Katlenbourg, and routed a large Detachment of Cavalry under the Command of M. de Clofen.

This whole Diftrict is reduced to a Defert; the Farmers and Peafants have been plundered of all their Cattle, and the Houfehold Goods, and Wearing Apparel of the Inhabitants of the Country Towns and Villages, have, by Order of the French General, been fold by Auction, to fupply the Deficiency of the exorbitant and unprecedented Contributions impofed upon them.

Whitehall, November 28.

The King has been pleafed to order a Congé d'Elire to the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Lincoln, for electing a Bifhop of that See, the fame being now void by the Tranflation of the Right Reverend Father in God, John, late Bifhop thereof, to the See of Salisbury; and alfo a Letter, recommending to the faid Dean and Chapter, Thomas Green, Doctor in Divinity, one of His Majefty's Chaplains in Ordinary, and Dean of the Cathedral Church of Sarum, to be by them elected Bifhop of the faid See of Lincoln.

The King has been pleafed to order a Congé d'Elire to the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Briftol, for electing a Bifhop of that See, the fame being now void by the Tranflation of the Right Reverend Father in God, Philip, late Bifhop thereof, to the See of Norwich; and alfo a Letter, recommending to the faid Dean and Chapter, Thomas Newton, Doctor in Divinity, one of His Majefty's Chaplains in Ordinary, and Prebendary of the Collegiate Church of St. Peter Weftminfter, to be by them elected Bifhop of the faid See of Briftol.

Admiralty Office, November 27.

His Majefty's Ship Richmond, commanded by Captain Elphinftone, being on her Way from the Downes to Spithead, on the 24th Inftant in the Morning, off Fairleigh, fell in with and took l'Epreveir, a French Lugfail Cutter Privateer, with Six Swivel Guns and Twenty Men, commanded by François Berthe, belonging to Calais. She had been out but Three Days, and had had no Succefs.

Admiralty-Office, Nov. 28.

The King having been pleafed to appoint the following Gentlemen to be Officers in His Marine Forces; it is the Direction of my Lords Commiffioners of the Admiralty, that the Second Lieutenants, hereafter-named, do immediately repair to this Office, where Commiffions will be delivered to fuch of them as fhall be approved of; after which, they are to repair to the refpective Head-Quarters of the Companies to which they belong, unlefs they are commanded elfewhere by their fuperior Officers.
